WHAT I BRING TO THE TABLE

- I've built ventures from the ground up, delivering real-world impact and proving that success is about action, not excuses.
- I think differently—finding solutions others miss and turning big ideas into reality through bold, innovative execution.
- ► I bridge the gap between business and technology, creating systems that don't just work but redefine what's possible.
- Inspiring others isn't optional—it's essential. I lead by example, sparking ambition through handson mentorship and clear vision.
- I've managed diverse teams across creative, technical, and operational roles, making complexity look simple and results inevitable.
- With a network spanning tech, marketing, and digital media, I connect people and ideas to unlock extraordinary opportunities.

WHAT I'VE DONE

- Led groundbreaking digital and creative projects across industries—from craft breweries to solar energy—proving innovation thrives everywhere.
- Designed and launched marketing campaigns that didn't just grow sales—they multiplied them, delivering tangible, measurable results.
- Managed stakeholders and global teams like clockwork, bridging IT and non-IT worlds to deliver seamless execution across borders.
- Orchestrated high-impact campaigns with teams of every size, from part-time creatives to largescale operations, always delivering big outcomes.
- Built and architected full-stack web applications that don't just meet technical requirements—they redefine what they can be.

WHAT I BRING TOGETHER

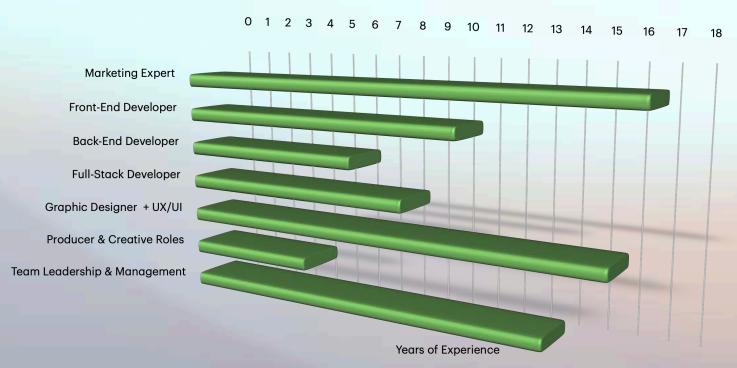

- The perfect fusion of creative brilliance and technical mastery to deliver solutions that are both visionary and practical.
- A rare mix of business acumen and digital technology expertise, ensuring every project is a win from both a strategic and technical perspective.
- Business, creative, and IT services aligned to build digital experiences that aren't just functional but truly valuable.
- A knack for leading and motivating teams, driving them toward shared objectives with energy, clarity, and purpose.

WHAT I'M LOOKING FOR

- A hands-on role where I can innovate, execute, and make an impact in tech, creative services, or digital marketing.
- ► The freedom to lead boldly—thinking big, acting fast, and delivering real results.
- A growth-focused environment with strong values, teamwork, and room for personal and professional expansion.
- Work that's meaningful, challenging, and balanced with life.
- An opportunity to add value to a family business in the Netherlands through tech and creativity.
- A role that demands energy, quick problem-solving, and decisive leadership.
